

Away from the hustle and bustle of the city, in the heart of the magical Magaliesberg, Budmarsh Private Lodge awaits to welcome you to its world of understated elegance, tranquility and personalized attention.

Being less than one hour from the busy metropolitan area of Johannesburg it is the ideal venue for businesses looking for undisturbed surroundings in which to hold productive conferences or meetings.

Both conference facilities are state-of-the-art, designed to inspire, motivate, develop and spoil your staff. The main conference facility offers sweeping views of the Magaliesberg Mountains while the second opens onto the peaceful and tranquil gardens. The conference rooms are ideal for training sessions, strategy sessions as well as team building exercises for either up to forty delegates in the main conference room, or twenty eight in the second conference room. The conference facilities provide modern but formal venues, are of the finest available and are fitted with the latest in DVD, Audio and Visual technology, Data Projectors, together with internet WiFi hot spots. Whatever your business function, the staff at Budmarsh will attend to your every need, to ensure that you can complete your business undisturbed.

A wide variety of team-building exercises are available for you to choose from. Being a stones throw away, the Magalies River offers the potential for some of the best Trout fishing in the area. Game drives, wine tasting, hot air ballooning, micro lighting and Murder dinners are a few of the other activities that can be organized.

Should you wish to stay over night, Budmarsh has eighteen en suite bedrooms. Each bedroom is fitted with the same luxurious finishes: under floor heating, heated towel racks and antique furniture. In addition to this, all rooms have satellite TV and Internet connections. Some rooms have atriiums with private showers while others have a balcony or fireplace.

During your stay you will be served only the finest cuisine. Our executive chef ensures that each meal is a unique gourmet experience, with all meals being individually prepared and presented. All special meal requirements will be catered for accordingly. Should you have any other special requests, these can also be arranged, for example theme evenings.

Budmarsh will enthrall you with its homely elegance and exceptional care throughout your stay.
